Policy, the request or demand must be immediately rejected and reported to the Company's Managing Director/CEO or written to siddhant@sportvot.com or reported at +91 98193 62992. Similarly, if any employee or agent knows or believes that an improper payment has been or will be made, the employee or agent must also report such payment to the Company's Managing Director/CEO or written to siddhant@sportvot.com or reported at +91 98193 62992. The Company's policy is that no adverse employment action will be taken against any personnel in retaliation for, honestly and in good faith, reporting a violation or suspected violation of anti-corruption laws or this Policy.

4. GIFTS, MEALS, ENTERTAINMENT AND EMPLOYMENT

4.1. This policy This Policy sets forth various rules relating to gifts, entertainment, travel, meals, lodging and employment. All such expenditures must be recorded accurately in the books and records of the Company, in accordance with Section IV below.

4.2. Gifts

As a general matter, the Company competes for and earns business through the quality of its personnel, products and services, not with gifts or lavish entertainment. The use of Company funds or assets for gifts, gratuities, or other favors to Government Officials or any other individual or entity (in the private or public sector) that has the power to decide or influence the Company's commercial activities is prohibited, unless all of the following circumstances are met.

- 4.2.1 the gift does not involve cash or cash equivalent gifts (e.g., gift cards, store cards or gambling chips);
- 4.2.2 the gift is permitted under both local law and the guidelines of the recipient's employer;
- 4.2.3 the gift is presented openly with complete transparency;
- 4.2.4 the gift is properly recorded in the Company's books and records;
- 4.2.5 the gift is provided as a token of esteem, courtesy or in return for hospitality and should comport with local custom;
- 4.2.6 Gifts that do not fall specifically within the above guidelines require advance consultation and approval by Managing Director/CEO or written to siddhant@sportvot.com for approval. Note that the provision of gifts, as well as the reporting requirements, in this Policy, apply even if Company Personnel are not seeking reimbursement for the expenses (i.e. paying these expenses out of your own pocket does not avoid these requirements). Company Personnel must not accept or permit any member of his or her immediate family to accept, any gifts, gratuities or other favors from any customer, supplier or other person doing or seeking to do business with the Company, other than items of nominal value. Any gifts that are not of nominal value should be returned immediately and reported to your supervisor. If immediate return is not practical, they should be given to the Company for charitable disposition.

4.3. Meals, Entertainment, Travel and Lodging

4.3.1 Common sense and moderation should prevail in business entertainment and the payment of travel and lodging expenses engaged in on behalf of the Company. Company Personnel should provide business entertainment to or from anyone doing business with the Company only if the entertainment is infrequent, modest and intended to serve legitimate business goals.

4.3.2 Meals, entertainment, travel and lodging should never be offered as a means of influencing another person's business decision. Each should only be offered if it is appropriate, reasonable for promotional purposes, offered or accepted in the normal course of an existing business relationship, and if the primary subject of discussion or purpose of travel is business. The appropriateness of a particular type of entertainment, travel and lodging of course, depends upon both the reasonableness of the expense and on the type of activity involved. This is determined based on whether or not the expenditure is sensible and proportionate to the nature of the individual involved. Adult entertainment is strictly prohibited.

4.3.3 Expenses for meals, entertainment, travel and lodging for Government Officials or any other individual or entity (in the private or public sector) that has the power to decide or influence the Company's commercial activities may be incurred without prior approval by the Managing Director/CEO only if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The expenses are bona fide and related to a legitimate business purpose and the events involved are attended by appropriate Company representatives;

(b) The cost of the meal, entertainment, travel or lodging per person is less than amount as notified by the CEO/Managing Director; and

(c) The meal, entertainment, travel or lodging is permitted by the rules of the recipient's employer (if applicable).

4.3.4 For all such expenses, the reimbursement request must identify total number of all attendees and their names, employer, and titles (if possible). All expense reimbursements must be supported by receipts, and expenses and approvals must be accurately and completely recorded in the Company's records. In all instances, Personnel must ensure that the recording of the expenditure associated with meals, lodging, travel or entertainment clearly reflects the true purpose of the expenditure. Note that the provision of meals, entertainment, travel and lodging as well as the reporting requirements, in this Policy, apply even if Company personnel are not seeking reimbursement for the expenses (i.e. paying these expenses out of your own pocket does not avoid these requirements). When possible, meals, entertainment, travel and lodging payments should be made directly by the Company to the provider of the service and should not be paid directly as a reimbursement. Per diem allowances may not be paid to a Government Official or any other individual (in the private or public sector) that has the power to decide or influence the Company's commercial activities for any reason. Any meal, entertainment, travel or lodging expense greater than the amount as notified by the Managing Director/CEO and any expense at all that is incurred for meals, entertainment, travel or lodging unrelated to a legitimate business purpose, must be pre-approved by the Managing Director/CEO. Please note that in addition to traditional gifts, meals, entertainment and travel that are provided to business relationships where Company Personnel are not in attendance shall be considered gifts, and subject to the rules and requirements for gifts specified in this Policy.

4.4. Employment/Internships

On occasion, Government Officials or Company's business partners may request that company shall provide internships or employment to certain individuals. Offering internships or employment to Government Officials or company's business partners may be viewed as providing an item of value. If a candidate is interviewed for an internship or employment within the ordinary course of filling a position, the Managing Director/CEO and the group compliance team must be notified of the candidate's relationship to a Government Official or Company's business partner by writing to siddhant@sportvot.com If a candidate related to a Government Official or Company's business partner is interviewed outside of the ordinary course of filling a position, any internship or employment offer must be pre-approved by the, Managing Director/CEO/CEO and written to siddhant@sportvot.com

5. POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS AND CHARITABLE DONATIONS

- 5.1. The Company's Personnel shall not make political or charitable donations, whether in their own name or in the name of the Company, to obtain or retain business or to gain an improper business advantage. Any political or charitable contributions by the Company must be permitted under the law, permissible pursuant to the terms of this Policy, made to a bona fide organization, and in the case of political contributions or charitable contributions connected to any Government Official or government entity made with the prior approval of the Managing Director/CEO with intimation to the group compliance team at shubhangi@sportvot.com or at +91 98193 62992. In certain instances, where there is heightened risk of corruption, the Managing Director/CEO may require diligence to be conducted. The Managing Director/CEO must be notified if a Government Official solicits a political or charitable contribution in connection with any government action related to the Company or its affiliates. Individual employees or agents may not make political contributions on behalf of the Company or its affiliates.

6. RELATIONSHIPS WITH THIRD PARTIES

6.1. The Anti-corruption laws prohibit indirect payments made through a third party, including giving anything of value to a third party while knowing that value will be given to a Government Official for an improper purpose. Therefore, Company Personnel should avoid situations involving third parties that might lead to a violation of this Policy. Company Personnel who deal with third parties are responsible for taking reasonable precautions to ensure that the third parties conduct business ethically and comply with this Policy. Such precautions may include, for third parties representing the Company before governmental entities, conducting an integrity due diligence review of a third party, inserting appropriate anti-corruption compliance provisions in the third party's written contract, requiring the third party to certify that it has not violated and will not violate this Policy and any applicable anti-corruption laws during the course of its business with the Company, and monitoring the reasonableness and legitimacy of the services provided by and the compensation paid to the third party during the engagement. The Company Personnel retaining third parties that will be representing the Company before governmental entities must discuss the engagement with the Managing Director/CEO and intimate the group compliance team at compliance@Company.com prior to hiring the third party. Any doubts regarding the scope of appropriate due diligence efforts in this regard should be resolved by contacting the Managing Director/CEO.

6.2. In addition, once a third party is engaged, the Company Personnel who deal with third parties must always be aware of potential red flags. Red flags are certain actions or facts which should alert a company that there is a high possibility of improper conduct by a third party. A red flag does not mean that something illegal has happened, but rather that further investigation is necessary. Red flags are highly fact-dependent, but some examples of red flags are:

6.2.1 Unusual or excessive payment requests, such as requests for over-invoicing, up-front payments, ill-defined or last-minute payments, success fees, unusual commissions or mid-stream compensation payments;

6.2.2 Requests for payments to an account in a country other than where the third party is located or is working on behalf of the Company;

6.2.3 Requests for payment to another third party, to a numbered account, or in cash or other untraceable funds;

6.2.4 Requests for political or charitable contributions;

6.2.5 The third party is related to a Government Official or has a close personal or business relationship with a Government Official;

- 6.2.6 Any refusal or hesitancy by the third party to disclose its owners, partners or principals;
- 6.2.7 The third party uses holding companies or other methods to obscure its ownership, without adequate business justification;
- 6.2.8 The third party expresses a desire to keep his representation of the Company or the terms of his retention secret; or
- 6.2.9 The third party has little experience in the industry but claims to “know the right people”;

6.3. If Company Personnel have reason to suspect that a third party is engaging in potentially improper conduct, they shall report the case to the Managing Director/CEO and at siddhant@sportvot.com & +91 98193 62992 immediately. The Company shall conduct an investigation and stop further payments to the third party if the Company’s suspicions are verified through the investigation.

7. RECORDKEEPING AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

7.1. The Company shall maintain systems of internal controls (including, but not limited to, accounting systems, purchasing systems and billing systems) to ensure compliance with the applicable laws in this regard. This Policy requires that all expenditures made by the Company are accurately reflected in the Company’s financial records, regardless of the size of the transaction and that all payments made with Company funds, or on behalf of the Company, have been properly authorized. Company Personnel must follow all applicable standards, principles, laws and practices for accounting and financial reporting. Company Personnel must be timely and complete when preparing all reports and records required by management. In particular, Company Personnel should ensure that no part of any payment is to be made for any purpose other than that to be fully and accurately described in the Company’s books and records. Company Personnel should use best efforts to ensure that all transactions, dispositions, and payments involving Company funds or assets are properly and accurately recorded in the Company’s financial records. No undisclosed or unrecorded accounts are to be established for any purpose. False or artificial entries are not to be made in the Company’s books and records for any reason. Finally, personal funds must not be used to accomplish what is otherwise prohibited by this Policy. The Managing Director/CEO is primarily responsible for the oversight and enforcement of this Policy. The Company will conduct periodic audits of its books and records to monitor compliance with this Policy

8. COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES AND TRAINING

- 8.1 As part of the Company's ongoing commitment to anti-corruption compliance, all Company Personnel must receive and review a copy of this Policy. All such Personnel must then certify in writing that they (1) have reviewed the Policy; (2) agree to abide by the Policy; and (3) agree to report any potential violations of the Policy to the Managing Director/CEO and at siddhant@sportvot.com +91 98193 62992 In addition, the Company will offer periodic anti-corruption compliance training programs to educate employees about the requirements and obligations of anti-corruption laws and this Policy. All employees of the Company must participate in such training and the [insert name of appropriate senior compliance executive] must retain attendance records establishing compliance with this requirement.

9. AMENDMENT

- 9.1 The Company takes its commitment to anti-corruption compliance very seriously and expects all Company Personnel to share that commitment. The Company therefore expects and requires any Company Personnel who have knowledge of, or reason to suspect, any violation of this Policy to contact the Managing Director/CEO and write to siddhant@sportvot.com or call on +91 98193 62992 immediately. Reports may be made anonymously. If any Company Personnel fail to report known or suspected violations, then the relevant Company Personnel may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- 9.2 It is the Company's policy that, if the report of known or suspected violations is made honestly and in good faith, no adverse employment-related action will be taken against any Company Personnel in retaliation for reporting a violation or suspected violation of anti-corruption laws or this Policy.
- 9.3 All questions regarding this Policy should be directed to the Managing Director/CEO or the team at siddhant@sportvot.com
